Shanghai Municipal Council.

December 4th 1916

Sir, It is reported that a meeting will be held in the Palace Hotel at 3 p.m. 4th inst under the auspices of the Chili Guild to discuss the Laoshikai incident. It is expected that two delegates from Tientsin will be present and will explain the whole situation. Members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Press association and other local bodies have been invited to attend. The hotel has been requested to provide seating accommodation for sixty persons.

As a result of a fire which occurred in the City at 5 a.m. 2nd inst 6 houses were completely destroyed. The fire is believed to have been caused accidentally.

A meeting was held in Yu Yuen Garden at 2.30 p.m. 3rd inst under the auspices of the Kiangsi association to welcome General Li Lih Chun ~~President~~. One Tsu Zung Hai ~~President~~. Speeches were made recounting the merits of the General and his work during the recent revolution. The meeting which was orderly terminated at 4 p.m. There were about 500 persons present including five Japanese.

Han Hwe ~~President~~ has sent a petition to General Yang stating that he has organised a labour party and requests that it be officially recognised. General Yang replied directing the petitioner to apply to the local police.

It is expected that the remains of General Tsai Ao will arrive at noon to-day.

The shops in the Settlements and City will fly their flags at half mast to morrow.

REPORT ON Meeting at the Yu-Yuen Gardens.

Made by J. S. Sullivan.

Forwarded by

Sir

I respectfully beg to report that the meeting to welcome General Lee Lit Ching (李立成) was held in the Yu-Yuen Gardens on the 3rd inst.

The meeting started at 2<sup>00</sup> and finished at 3<sup>35</sup> p.m. and was attended by about 600 persons. Most of those who attended were of the merchant and business man class, and very few, if any, officials.

From a translation of the speeches made there was nothing that could be objected to. Lee Lit Ching exhorted his listeners to do their best for the government, and the other speakers confined their attention principally to praising Lee Lit Ching.

The list of speakers was as follows:

Lee Lit Ching	(李 烈 騞 )
Tsu Jing Tsu	(鄒 靜 希 )
Pau Jen Sung	(鮑 全 順 )
Gia Tsy Sung	(謝 子 雪 )
Zung Pak Kien	(蔭 伯 希 ) newspaper editor
Lee Van Tseng	(李 清 靖 ) newspaper editor

I beg to remain

Sir

Yours Obedient Servant
J. Sullivan. Det. Comt.
